

Vereniging Buma (the Buma association) and Stichting Stemra (the Stemra foundation) are the copyright organisations for composers, lyricists and music publishers.

Amendment to exploitation rights form

Filling in this form lets you change your existing exploitation agreement with Buma/Stemra. You can state which exploitation rights and for which territories you wish to be affiliated for in future.

After this form has been processed, we will send you an appendix to your existing exploitation agreement in which the change to the transfer of rights is handled. Amendments are possible as of 31 December of any given year, taking a period of notice of at least three months into account.

You can also use this form if you want to transfer exploitation rights that you have previously excluded from the rights transferred. You will only have transferred the commercial exploitation rights once both parties have signed the appendix.

The amendment form can be sent to Buma/Stemra, Member Service Department, Antwoordnummer 398, 2130 VB Hoofddorp (NL). Once we have received the form from you, we will send a confirmation of receipt within no more than 5 days. If you do not receive a confirmation of receipt, we recommend that you should contact Buma/Stemra immediately.

Note: The date of the request is deemed to be the date on which Buma/Stemra sends a confirmation of receipt to the requesting party, minus the processing time of 5 days. The reason for this is that there must not be any misunderstanding about whether the change was requested in time and/or whether it was received by Buma/Stemra.
