When voting takes place for positions other than those on the Supervisory Board, each of the non-suspended affiliates has the right to cast a maximum of one vote. What is stipulated in Article 25 applies accordingly.

Article 13c

- 13c.1 Without prejudice to what is stipulated in Articles 13, 13a and 13b above, only a person who is appointed at the same time as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Foundation can be appointed as a member of the Supervisory Board of Buma.
- 13c.2 The Supervisory Board draws up a profile sketch of the composition of the Supervisory Board, taking the representativeness of the various genres, among other things, into account. The profile sketch of the Supervisory Board is published on the Foundation's website. Without prejudice to what is stipulated in Articles 13, 13a and 13b above, all recommendations and nominations of candidates must be made taking this profile sketch into account.
- 13c.3. The Advisory Appointment Committee as referred to in Article 29, Paragraph 2 shall fulfil its role in the composition of the Supervisory Board and the Board of Rightsholders such that the diversity of the genres and the representativeness is guaranteed as much as possible.
- 13c.4. The Supervisory Board is composed in such a way that the members can operate independently and critically vis-à-vis each other, the members and any other interests. The Supervisory Board must be composed in such a way that it can fulfil its task properly.

Article 14

- 14.1 The Supervisory Board, and in the absence of a Supervisory Board, the Board, will invite the eligible organisations as specified in Article 13b, Paragraph 1 and 2, in writing to nominate candidates at least ten (10) weeks prior to the date of the meeting of affiliates at which a decision has to be taken on filling one or more vacancies on the Supervisory Board.

- 14.5 If one of the organisations mentioned in Article 13b, Paragraph 1 has nominated a candidate in a way which contravenes the Articles of Association and participants as referred to in Paragraph 4 have also nominated a candidate in a way which contravenes the Articles of Association, the Supervisory Board will appoint a candidate for the vacancy concerned.

Article 15

- 15.1 The members of the Supervisory Board are appointed for four years. They resign in accordance with a roster to be compiled by the Supervisory Board. Resigning members of the Supervisory Board are eligible for reappointment immediately but only once, on the understanding that if a member of the Supervisory Board has resigned from his position and that a continuous period of four years has passed since then, the person concerned will be eligible once again for appointment as a member of the Supervisory Board and what is stipulated in the first two paragraphs of this article shall apply to him/her.
- 15.2 Vacancies which arise between meetings will be permanently filled at the next meeting of affiliates at which all the provisions of these Articles of Association concerning the appointment of members of the Supervisory Board can be met.
- 15.3 Interim vacancies which arise between meetings may be temporarily filled by the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board may appoint a temporary member of the Supervisory Board:
- a. on the basis of a binding nomination of a temporary candidate by a professional association, if the member whose membership of the Supervisory Board has ended between meetings was originally nominated by this professional association. The binding nomination may be deprived of its binding nature by a decision by the Supervisory Board supported by at least two-thirds of the votes cast.

- b. in the case of a member whose membership of the Supervisory Board has ended in the meantime, nominated as a candidate at the time by ten participants as referred to in Article 13b, Paragraph 1 – or by the Supervisory Board itself in the context of Article 14, Paragraph 5 – after the Supervisory Board has held negotiations about an interim candidate with the ten participants who had nominated the Supervisory Board member concerned as a candidate or with the professional associations.
- c. in the case of an independent member as appointed by the Supervisory Board itself in accordance with the provisions of Article 17, Paragraph 2. The stipulations in Article 13, Paragraph 4 apply accordingly to the appointment of temporary members of the Supervisory Board.

15.4 The temporary member of the Supervisory Board will resign at the next meeting of affiliates as specified in Paragraph 2 during which all the provisions of these Articles of Association concerning the appointment of ordinary members of the Supervisory Board can be met.

15.5 The duties performed by the ordinary members of the Supervisory Board and the requirements concerning the composition of the Supervisory Board apply in full to the appointment of temporary members of the Supervisory Board.

- 15.6 a. In the event of the anticipated longer-term absence of one (or more) of the members of the Supervisory Board of the Foundation, the Supervisory Board, in a similar manner to that described in Art. 15 par. 3 subparagraph a/b of the Articles of Association and taking into account the provision of b below, can appoint a person to assist the Supervisory Board in the performance of its duties for the duration of the absence. This designated person is merely an observer, and has no formal vote.
- b. After a period of nine (9) months of absence, this will become an interim vacancy. The filling of this interim vacancy will take place in a similar manner to Art. 15 par. 2 to 5 of these Articles of Association. The nominated person will remain as an observer until the time at which the vacancy is filled.

Article 16

- 16.1 Without prejudice to the stipulations of Article 17, Paragraph 4, membership of the Supervisory Board ends:

 - c. upon resignation in the meantime at the member's own request;
 - d. upon losing a status listed in Article 13, Paragraph 3;
 - e. upon losing the status of member of the Supervisory Board of Buma, as prescribed in Article 13, Paragraph 3;
 - f. upon dismissal by the affiliates' meeting as recommended by the Supervisory Board or thirty affiliates or such a number of all affiliates as are entitled to cast one-tenth of the votes in an affiliates' meeting; such a decision for dismissal requires a majority of at least three-quarters of the votes cast in the meeting.

16.2. If the number of members of the Supervisory Board falls below eight (8) for any reason whatsoever, the remaining members or the sole remaining member of the Supervisory Board shall form a fully competent Supervisory Board. A meeting of affiliates must be convened as soon as possible, however, in which the open place or places are discussed. If the membership of all sitting members of the Supervisory Board ends, the Board will temporarily take over all the powers and obligations of the Supervisory Board. The Board will immediately convene a members' meeting in accordance with the provisions of Articles 14 and 26, at which a new Supervisory Board will be appointed.

16.3. The Supervisory Board is authorised to suspend a member of the Supervisory Board with regard to the provisions of this article.

16.4. A resolution of the Supervisory Board for immediate and effective suspension requires unanimity of the votes cast, with at least one author and one publisher voting for suspension, not including the independent chairman and the respective member of the Supervisory Board.

16.5 In cases other than those provided for in paragraph 4 (direct suspension) a decision to suspend requires a three-quarter majority of the votes cast, not including the independent chairman and respective member of the Supervisory Board.

- 16.6 Suspension will not take place before the Supervisory board member in question has been heard or has been given the opportunity to be heard.
- 16.7 A suspension may last no longer than one year. Extension of a suspension is not possible. The administrative emoluments will not be paid during the suspension.
- 16.8 A decision to lift a suspension requires the same qualified majority as the original decision to suspend (unanimity or three-quarters majority).
- 16.9 Items relating to a suspension will be placed on the agenda of the Supervisory board by the independent chairman of the Supervisory Board, unless these concern himself, in which case they will be placed on the agenda by another member of the Supervisory Board.
- 16.10 There is no appeal to the Buma/Stemra Disputes Committee against a suspension.
- 16.11 In the case of a long-term suspension, and on the recommendation of the professional association (or 10 participants) of the suspended board member, the Supervisory Board can appoint an observer provided there is compliance with Article 15 par. 6 of the Buma/Stemra Articles of Association.

Article 17

- 17.1 The Supervisory Board appoints a vice-chairman and a secretary from among its members.
- 17.2 The Supervisory Board, after consulting the Board of Rightsholders, will make a proposal to the affiliates' meeting to appoint two independent persons as members of the Supervisory Board, one member of which is also appointed as Chairman, also called Independent Chairman. Article 13.3, par. a and b and Articles 13a and 13b do not apply to the independent persons of the Supervisory Board. The provisions of Article 13, paragraph 4 apply in this matter.
- 17.3 The chairman chairs the meetings of the Supervisory Board. The vice chairman will deputise in the chairman's absence. If both are absent, the Supervisory Board will appoint a chairman for the meeting.
- 17.4 With respect to the independent chairman as referred to in Paragraph 2, his/her membership of the Supervisory Board ends, in addition to what is stipulated in Article 16, Paragraph 1, as a result of a decision for dismissal by the affiliates' meeting to that end that is taken on the recommendation of the Supervisory Board, having heard the Board of Rightsholders. The recommendation by the Supervisory Board for the dismissal of the independent chairman can only come about by virtue of a decision by the Supervisory Board that is taken with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast in a meeting at which at least three-quarters of the other active members of the Supervisory Board are present or represented. The chairman does not take part in the voting. Abstentions and invalid votes are deemed not to have been cast. The Supervisory Board cannot adopt such a recommendation for dismissal without having interviewed the chairman or having reasonably offered him/her the opportunity to be interviewed.

Article 18

- 18.1 The Supervisory Board has the task of supervising the policy of the management Board and the general course of affairs in the Foundation and the company or organisation affiliated with the Foundation. The Board of Supervisors assists the Board with advice, both solicited and unsolicited. In fulfilling their duties, the members of the Supervisory Board shall focus on the interests of the Foundation and the company or organisation associated with the Foundation and, to that end, shall weigh the relevant interests of interested parties involved in the Foundation.
- 18.2 The Supervisory Board shall discuss at least once a year the strategy and the main risks associated with the Foundation, the results of the assessment by the Board of the design and operation of the internal risk management and control systems, and any significant changes thereto. The holding of these discussions is mentioned in the annual report of the Supervisory Board.
- 18.3 The Supervisory Board shall draw up regulations of the Supervisory Board, in which the matters concerning it internally are further regulated, which regulations may also be amended by the Supervisory Board. The regulations may also determine the task with which each member of the Supervisory Board is charged in particular.

- 18.4. Without prejudice to the provisions elsewhere in these Articles of Association or the provisions of the management regulations, the approval of the Supervisory Board is required in any case for resolutions of the Board regarding:
- a. the strategy as laid down by the Board in a strategic plan;
 - b. the risk management policy;
 - c. any acquisition, sale or encumbrance of real estate;

Article 19

- 19.1 The Supervisory Board meets as often as the chairman deems necessary or if three members of the Supervisory Board or the chairman of the Board request a meeting, but at least four (4) times a year. The Supervisory Board meets at least once a year without the presence of the Board.
- 19.2 If the chairman does not convene a meeting requested by three members of the Board or by the chairman of the Board within two weeks, the parties requesting the meeting have the right to convene a meeting themselves and to provide a chairman for it.
- 19.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 5, decisions of the Supervisory Board may only be taken legally and without interference or consultation in a meeting at which at least
- i. one member as referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph a, and
 - ii. one member as referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph b, and
 - iii. one member as referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph c,
- are physically present. A member of the Supervisory Board can be represented in a meeting by another member of the Supervisory Board after a written power of attorney has been granted that the chairman considers sufficient, and on the understanding that the written power of attorney granted to the other member is simultaneously valid for a meeting of Buma. A member of the Supervisory Board can therefore only act as an authorised person for one other member of the Supervisory Board. If the aforementioned quorum is not physically present, a new meeting must be convened on a date not less than fourteen days, and no more than one month after the first meeting. The respective legally-binding decision may then be taken at this meeting, regardless of the number of members of the Supervisory Board present or represented.

- 19.4. Teleconference and decision-making: The Supervisory Board may also make non-written decisions in a conference call, which includes any other standard means of telecommunication, provided that the relevant proposal has been submitted to all members of the Supervisory Board and none of them have objected to this manner of making decisions. Following a teleconference, each member of the Supervisory Board who attended the meeting shall send a written confirmation of his/her vote to the Secretary to the Supervisory Board. With regard to resolutions taken in this way, a report will be drawn up, including the written confirmations that have been received by the chairman, and this will be signed by the chairman and the secretary to the Supervisory Board. This report will be filed at the offices of the Foundation.
- 19.5 Email decisions:
- a. The Supervisory Board may – in a singular event that lends itself towards a decision without substantive discussion – make a written decision without a meeting (whereby this includes votes being cast by email), provided that
 - i. the text of the proposal, including a deadline within which a vote may be cast – and, when using email and similar means of communication, including confirmation of receipt – is simultaneously sent to all the members of the Supervisory Board as far as possible, and
 - ii. at least three members of the Supervisory Board - not including the independent chairman, but including at least one member as

- referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph a, one member as referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph b and one member as referred to in Article 13.3 paragraph c, – have declared in writing within the deadline mentioned in sub-paragraph i (whereby this includes every report that is sent with the help of today's means of communications and is received in writing) that they are in agreement with this form of decision-making.
- b. In the case of voting by email, the member of the Supervisory Board shall, when making his vote, send a copy of his vote to the other members of the Supervisory Board (for example, using reply to all), simultaneously as far as possible, unless it was a vote regarding persons (in which case, no reply to all).
- c. A written decision can be taken without a meeting by the simple majority of at least three submitted votes, including the votes of at least one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under a, one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under b and one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under c, whereby blank votes shall be deemed to have not been cast. A written decision on the establishment and amendment of rules or concerning a proposal to amend these Articles of Association may only be taken without a meeting with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast, including the votes of at least one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under a, one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under b and one member as referred to in Article 13 paragraph 3 under c, whereby blank votes shall be deemed to have not been cast. In the event of a tie, the chairman of the Supervisory Board decides.
- d. After expiry of the deadline, a report will be drawn on the same day regarding the result of the vote with – unless it was a vote regarding persons – a report of how the individual members of the Supervisory Board voted, if not everyone answered with 'reply all'. The

- Supervisory Board shall keep a record of decisions reached in this way. The written decision shall be passed once again for information at the next meeting.
- 19.6 Decisions by the Supervisory Board on the establishment and amendment of rules or concerning a proposal to amend these Articles of Association may only be taken with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at the Supervisory Board meeting. In all other cases, the Supervisory Board may take decisions with a majority of the votes cast at the meeting. Abstentions and invalid votes are deemed not to have been cast. In the event of a tie, the chairman of the Supervisory Board decides.
- 19.7 A member of the Supervisory Board shall not take part in the deliberation and decision-making if he has a direct or indirect personal interest that conflicts with the interests of the Foundation and its affiliated company or organisation. If the Supervisory Board cannot thereby reach a decision, the decision will nevertheless be taken by the Supervisory Board. The provisions in this paragraph shall take effect as from the entry into force of the Act on the management and supervision of legal entities.
- 19.8 The Board attends the meetings of the Supervisory Board unless the subject relates to the Board itself, in which case the Supervisory Board may decide to meet without the Board being present.
- 19.9 The remuneration and any other emoluments of the members of the Supervisory Board and the representation allowance of the chairman are determined by the Supervisory Board, for which the standards are fixed by the Affiliates' Meeting on the recommendation of the Supervisory Board.

Subject to the approval of the chairman, a member of the Board of Rightsholders may be represented at a meeting by another member of the Board of Rightsholders if a suitable, written power of attorney is provided. A member of the Board of Rightsholders can thereby only act on behalf of another member of the Board of Rightsholders as a proxy. If fewer than eight members of the Board of Rightsholders are physically present at a meeting, a new meeting will be convened on a date not less than fourteen days and no more than one month after the first meeting. The respective legally-binding decision may be taken at this meeting, regardless of the number of members of the Board of Rightsholders present.

20c.6 Teleconferences and decision-making:

The Board of Rightsholders may also make non-written decisions in a conference call, which includes any other standard means of telecommunication, provided that the relevant proposal has been submitted to all the members of the Board of Rightsholders and none of them have objected to this manner of making decisions. Following a teleconference, each member of the Board of Rightsholders who attended the meeting shall send a written confirmation of his/her vote to the Secretary to the Board. The method of decision making shall be covered once again for information purposes at the next meeting and will be recorded in the minutes.

 - ii. at least seven members of the Board of Rightsholders have declared in writing within the deadline mentioned in sub-paragraph i (whereby this includes every report that is sent with the help of today's means of communications and is received in writing) that they are in agreement with this form of decision-making.
- b. In the case of voting by email, the member of the Board of Rightsholders shall, when making his vote, send a copy of his vote to the other members of the Board of Rightsholders (for example, using reply to all), simultaneously as far as possible, unless it was a vote regarding persons (in which case, no reply to all).
- c. A written decision can be taken without a meeting by the simple majority of at least seven submitted votes, whereby blank votes shall be deemed to have not been cast.

- d. After expiry of the deadline, a report will be drawn on the same day regarding the result of the vote with –unless it was a vote regarding persons – a report of how the individual members of the Board of Rightsholders voted, if not everyone answered with 'reply all'. The Board of Rightsholders shall keep a record of decisions reached in this way. The written decision shall be passed once again for information at the next meeting.

20c.8 If the chairman does not convene a meeting that has been requested by three members of the Board of Rightsholders or the chairman of the Board or the chairman of the Supervisory Board within two weeks, the applicants have the right to convene a meeting themselves and to provide a chairman for it.

20c.9 The Board of Rightsholders makes its decisions by a simple majority of the votes cast at the meeting. Blank votes and invalid votes will be deemed to have not been cast.

20c.10 The Board will attend the meetings of the Board of Rightsholders, unless the proposal concerns the Board itself, in which case the Board of Rightsholders can decide to meet without the presence of the Board.

 2. An amendment to a proposal is a change that is textual in nature or subsidiary to the meaning of that proposal. Modifications affecting the content, including modifications that are contrary in meaning to the original proposal, shall be deemed to be a request to the board to include this in the preparations for the next meeting of affiliates, without prejudicing the right of affiliates to submit items for the agenda or to call for a meeting of affiliates as defined in Article 26.

3. An amendment must be submitted to the Board in writing no later than 6 (six) working days before the meeting of affiliates, stating the name, address and telephone number of the party submitting it. The Board is responsible for the distribution of the amendment at the meeting of affiliates.
 4. The chairman presents the amendment for discussion at the same time as the proposal to which it pertains.
 5. Any amendment may be explained by the party or parties submitting it.
 6. An amendment shall be deemed admissible unless the chairman has ruled otherwise. A motion for such a decision can be moved by the chairman or by another of the parties that are present.
 7. The following sequence shall be observed when taking decisions about a proposal and the amendments suggested to it:
 - i. the amendments
 - ii. the proposal itself, whether or not amended according to one or more adopted amendments, as the case may be.
 8. When making decisions on amendments as described in the previous paragraph, the amendments shall be discussed in order with those that have the most far-reaching effect being taken first. In the case of disputes over the question of which amendment has the most far-reaching consequences, the meeting shall take a decision. Adopting an amendment means that amendments with less far-reaching consequences shall not be discussed. The chairman can also decide that decisions shall be taken separately on individual elements of an amendment.
 9. The meeting can decide that other changes made may mean that amendments have to be considered to have lapsed.
- 31.4 If fewer than fifty (50) affiliates are present at a meeting at which a proposal to amend the Articles of Association is on the agenda, a new meeting is convened on a date no less than fourteen days and no more than one month after the first meeting. The Board will notify the affiliates of this meeting at least seven days before the meeting, stating the agenda of the previous meeting referred to at the beginning of this paragraph, as well as the venue and time of the new meeting, in a publication issued periodically by the Foundation, by circular letter or by advertisement in a popular national newspaper, or by making the notice of the meeting available by electronic means. Paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 26 do not apply to this meeting of affiliates. A legally binding decision to amend the Articles of Association can be taken at this meeting with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes regardless of the number of affiliates present.

- 31.5 Resolutions to amend the Articles of Association shall only enter into force after they have received written consent from the Control Board of the Collective Board Organisations for Authors and neighbouring rights and have then been confirmed by a notarial deed. Each member of the Board is authorised to execute this deed.

DISSOLUTION

Article 32

- 31.1 Before being able to take the decision to dissolve the Foundation, the meeting of affiliates must take a decision in principle on this matter with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at the Supervisory Board's request. At least sixty affiliates must be present at this meeting.
- 31.2 A decision on the dissolution of the Foundation can only be taken with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a new meeting of affiliates at which the number of affiliates needed to cast one-tenth of the votes is present.
- 31.3 If a meeting at which a proposal to dissolve the Foundation is on the agenda is not attended by this number of affiliates, a new meeting will be convened on a date no less than fourteen days but no more than one month after the first meeting. The Board will notify the affiliates of this meeting at least seven days before the meeting, stating the agenda of the previous meeting referred to at the beginning of this paragraph, as well as the venue and time of the new meeting, in a publication issued periodically by the Foundation, by circular letter or by advertisement in a popular national newspaper, or by circulating the notice of the meeting electronically. Paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 26 do not apply to this meeting of affiliates. A legally binding decision to dissolve the Foundation can be taken at this meeting with a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes regardless of the number of affiliates present.
